Edward V. Redmond

Edward V. Redmond, age 51 years, passed away early Saturday morning, Feb. 25, at the Aberdeen hospital, after having undergone a brain surgery at Minneapolis, five weeks ago.

Mr. Redmond was born on Jan. 16, 1899, at Hancock, Wis. His early childhood was spent in Iowa. In 1917 he moved with his parents to Huron, where Mr. Redmond entered employment with the Chicago & Northwestern railroad. He had been a section foreman for the railroad since 1920, the past eleven years at Groton.

He leaves to mourn, his wife, Alice Redmond; a twin sister, Mrs. J. P. Waldner, and Mrs. Willy Wolf, a sister, both of Lebanon; a half-sister, Mrs. Carrie Harkness of Sedro Woolley, Wash.; a niece, Mrs. Arlo Jones of Parkston, S. D., and many other relatives and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2:00 p. m., at the Methodist church with the Rev. F. G. MacKenzie officiating. Burial was in the Groton Union cemetery.

Pall bearers were: Lyle Blair, Robt. Washnok, Donald Feller, Alvin Larsen, Walter Pasch and Bruce Johnson.

Eddie Redmond, as he was known to his many friends, was a quiet, kind and loving husband and friend. His kindly disposition and affectionate greeting will be missed by his many friends on the streets of this city. Ed. was struck down in the prime of life with an affliction that seems to be ever increasing with a high rate of mortality.

Heartfelt sympathy is extended to his widow and sisters in the loss of their loved one.
